Over a month ago the preparation of the Christmas music was begun in earnest throughout most of the churches, giving assurance of some fine programs, which in some cases will be supplemented by an orchestral accompaniment.

The week between Christmas and New Year is always filled with church affairs. This is the time for socials, concerts, recitals and the Sunday school entertainments. Regarding the latter, a plan springing from the present hard times and the demands for charity will be carried out at the Hamline Methodist, the Luther Memorial, the Assembly Presbyterian, the Keller Memorial (Lutheran), and many other churches in the city. Instead of receiving presents from the church and from each other, they will all be asked to bring gifts to the poor.

And now it seems that besides a church saloon, a church gymnasium, church libraries and the like, there is to be such a thing as a church pawn shop. In a Boston letter to the Times-Union the plan of just such an enterprise in connection with the Trinity Church, of which Phillips Brooks used to be the pastor, is set forth. People in need can borrow such sums as they can amply secure and the rate of interest charged them will be only 4 per cent.

The corner stone of St. Paul's Catholic Church, corner of 15th and V streets northwest, will be laid on January 31 by Cardinal Gibbons. A tent to hold 2,000 people, lighted by electricity and heated by gas, will be erected. A number of uniformed societies have signified their intention to attend. Four sermons will be preached-one in the tent, one in the open air, one in the chapel and one in the school hall. Among the prel-ates invited are Archbishops Ryan, Ireland and Corrigan, and Bishops Foley and O'Sul-
